Communion next Sabbath, March 21 – Part of the series on The Victory Circle that Pastor Darrel is doing includes embracing the living Christ in our lives. Today's service could assist you in preparing for a fuller experience of embracing Christ's power of His resurrection next Sabbath for communion. Take some time to reconcile your relationships—through the Cross of Christ, with heaven, and with each other—in anticipation of communion.

Coronavirus Pandemic and the Niles Westside Church Family

We invite you to pray for our world and God's people in particular as we face this pandemic together. We should not be surprised that life as normal will be disrupted as we get closer to the time Daniel mentioned that would be "as never before" (we are not there yet). This Pandemic is an opportunity to start practicing placing your life in the Lord's hands as men run to and fro. Psalm 91 is a powerful reminder of how to love-trust our Creator God. We should not be presumptuous or reckless in our living in these times. So we invite those (especially the elderly) who plan to stay home, to join us on livestream during the 11 AM service on our Facebook page:

facebook.com/nileswestsidechurch/

or watch directly from our website nileswestside.org.

Here are some good things to remember:

1. Stay home if you have the flu or flu-like symptoms
2. Wash hands regularly (for 20 seconds)
3. Don't be offended if others don't want to shake hands (practice greeting in other non-contact ways)
4. Give each other respectful space during this pandemic and trust God with your life.

We invite you to spend time in prayer about this matter and ask for God's mercy to cover us that we can still complete His mission.
